Children's Photos – 20th September

On Thursday, we will have photographers in school to take individual and family portraits. If you would like a family photo, please come to the school hall from 8:30am Photos will be available to purchase directly from the photographers.

The Link @ Armitage

Our new building – 'The Link @ Armitage' is finally finished; you will find it at the back of the school near the KS2 Playground and West Medical Centre. Upstairs there will be a community room available for local residents. Situated downstairs is a nursery for 2 year olds. We are currently offering places in this nursey, if you or anyone you know is interested in your child attending the nursey then please visit the School Office.

Asian Theme Week

During the week starting 8th October the school will be hosting an Asian Theme Week. The children will be learning about Asian cultures and history in their lessons.

Don't Forget

Parent Café is every Friday from 9am until 11am. Also, Stay and Play is every Thursday from 1:30pm until 3pm in the Community Room.

ParentMail

If you have received a paper copy of this Newsletter, it is because you have not signed up for ParentMail. We send out all important communications via ParentMail regarding school and your children, including booking Parents Evening appointments, giving consent for trips and making payments. If you would like some help with ParentMail, please ask at the School Office.
